COMPLAINT

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION –TRESPASS ON THE CASE

(Common Law)

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Defendants failed to obey their oaths of office and exceeded the court's jurisdiction, and because they exceeded the Court's jurisdiction, injured the Plaintiff in loss of rights.

The defendant's negligent and intentional failure to obey oaths of office is a serious human rights abuse and is corruption, and perhaps also treason and sedition under U.S. law.¹

1. The Plaintiff, Edward Thomas Kennedy, ("Kennedy" and/or "Plaintiff") is one of the people of Pennsylvania in this court of record

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/presidential-actions/executive-order-blocking-pr-operty-persons-involved-serious-human-rights-abuse-corruption/> complains against the Defendants the Administrative Office of the United States Courts ("AOUSC"), John Glover Roberts, ("Roberts") individually and in his official capacity as Chief Executive Officer of the United States Courts, Reed Charles O'Connor ("O'Connor") individually and in his official capacity as a federal employee of the United States Courts Northern District of Texas, Jeffrey L. Cureton ("Cureton") individually and in his official capacity as a federal employee of the United States Courts Northern District of Texas, and the United States Courts ("Courts"), for Trespass on the Case (Common Law), and Negligence but not Vicarious Liability.

2. NOTICE

- a. Under mandatory and binding law, the Constitution of the United States, and this United States Cour for the Northern District of Texas is a court of record as defined in the Law of the Case (Exhibit 1).
- b. Executive Order 11110.
- c. 12 U.S. Code § 411.
- d. We the people do not yield our sovereignty to those agencies that serve us. The United States Courts is an agency and a corporation. The Administrative Office of the United States Courts is an agency and a corporation. It is probable that the federal employees in the Senior Executive Services of both Courts and AOUSC are traitors.
- e. The Defendants named herein in this case under 28 U.S. Code § 1361 have a duty owed to the plaintiff by U.S. law.
- f. Defendants Roberts and O'Connor as U.S. Judges have no authority or jurisdiction to trespass on the plaintiff's case in a court of record.
- g. Pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 453, Plaintiff accepts the oath of office of the U.S. Judge assigned to this case and binds him to it.
- h. The plaintiff does not consent to a U.S. Magistrate Judge.

NOTICE

Plaintiff did not consent to the services of U.S. Magistrate Judge and Defendant Jeffrey L. Cureton in case no. 19-cv-124 in N.D. Tex.

4. Defendant the Administrative Office of the United States Courts is a private corporation, with executive offices at 1 Columbus Circle Northeast, Washington, DC 20002.

5. Defendant John Glover Roberts is an individual, with an address at 1 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20543.

6. Defendant Reed Charles O'Connor is an individual, with an address at 501 W 10th Street, Fort Worth, TX 76102.

7. Defendant Jeffrey L. Cureton is an individual, with an address at 501 W 10th Street, Fort Worth, TX 76102.

8. Defendant United States Courts is a private corporation, with executive offices at 1 Columbus Circle Northeast, Washington, DC 20002.

9. Plaintiff claims federal jurisdiction pursuant to Article III § 2 which extends the jurisdiction the Plaintiff brings this action against the United States Courts, and Defendants as federal employees and corporation officers, pursuant to Title 28 U.S. Code § 1331, in claims arising from violations of federal constitutional rights guaranteed in the fourth, fifth, seventh and ninth amendments to the U.S. Constitution and redressable pursuant to Bivens v. Six Unknown Narcotics Agents 403 U.S. 388 (1971) arising under the U.S. Constitution, and the Magna Carta, which is mandatory and binding, good law today.² The plaintiff also claims federal jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 1361 - Action to compel an officer of the United States to perform his duty. The district courts shall have original jurisdiction of any action in the nature of mandamus to compel an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof to perform a duty owed to the plaintiff. The matter in controversy exceeds, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum specified by 28 U.S.C. § 1332.

10. Under Federal Rules of Evidence 902 the following facts are self-authenticating evidence as part of the official public record:

a. Res ipsa loquitur, in a court of record in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, a federal employee and Defendant O'Connor in Case No: 19-cv-214, on 05/06/19 (ECF Doc. 10) trespassed on the case, evidenced by his signature on the court docket.

b. Res ipsa loquitur, in a court of record in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, a federal employee and Defendant Jeffrey L. Cureton in Case No: 19-cv-124, on 02/12/19 (ECF No. 5) trespassed on the case, evidenced by his signature the court docket.

11. The plaintiff suffered injuries and damages because the Defendants denied Plaintiff at least seven million, six hundred fifty thousand dollars, ($7,650,000.00) cited in the plaintiff's case in the dockets in paragraphs 10(a) and 10(b) inclusive in N.D. Tex. from Plaintiff's Original Complaint in the Civil Action cited herein.

12. Pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 453, Defendants Roberts, O'Connor and Cureton are federal employees, who have a duty not to be negligent by U.S. Law, to obey their oaths of office, to provide justice to both rich and poor, and to not exceed the jurisdiction of the Court, and not to file fake paperwork in courts of law.

² In a speech to the American BAR Association by Defendant Roberts concerning the Magna Carta. Roberts ignorethet truth concerning CONFIRMATIO CARTARUM, (conforming charter) October 10, 1297, by Edward, King of England. This conforming charter reaffirms that the Magna Carta may be pleaded as the Common Law before a court. This links the Magna Carta to the Common Law. The U.S. Constitution guarantees one's access to the Common Law, i.e. the Magna Carta. The speech Link is here: https://www.americanbar.org/news/abanews/aba-news-archives/2014/08/aba_annual_meeting2/

13. Membership by U.S. Judges in the Universal Charter of the Judges is prima facie evidence of treason. Plaintiff believes Roberts and O'Connor are members of this primary membership association for they put their personal financial interest ahead of we the people.³

14. Plaintiff Kennedy avers that Roberts' relationship with the Knights of Malta is a national security risk, and a risk to Kennedy's safety and security. Money paid to Roberts by the Knights of Malta to teach the Knights about the history of the United States Supreme Court is evidence of bribery for it is absurd and not believable.

15. Federal employee Article III Judges, U.S. Magistrates, elected public officials, modern attorneys and their fellow, professional, private membership association American BAR Association ("ABA ")members nationwide via ABA corporate subsidiaries such as the State of Texas BAR Association, take oaths to obey the U.S. Constitution, and to tell the truth, which means not to lie, misinform, misstate, misconstrue, make law, or put false paperwork into a court of record.

16. Defendant O'Connor and Cureton have put false paperwork into the Plaintiff's case. O'Connor put the financial and economic interests of his trade association (Texas BAR Association) and the legal profession ahead of the Plaintiff in the case named herein. Defendant Roberts is Chief Executive Officer of Defendant United States Courts, a private corporation, and is officially and individually responsible for the Plaintiff's claims of both trespass on the case and negligence of his corporate subordinate Roberts named herein.

17. Exhibit "1" Law of the Case is incorporated by reference as though fully stated herein. The Federal Tort Claims Act ("FTCA") is a 1946 federal statute that permits private parties to sue the United States Courts in a federal court for torts committed by persons acting on behalf of the United States.⁴ The United States Courts is a corporation and corporations are not sovereign. We the people are sovereign. CONFIRMATIO CARTARUM, (conforming charter) October 10, 1297, By Edward, King of England, reaffirms that the Magna Carta may be pleaded as the Common Law before a court. This links the Magna Carta to the Common Law. The U.S. Constitution guarantees one's access to the Common Law, i.e. the Magna Carta. The Plaintiff and his grandfather Kennedy were named Edward in honor of the King of England, thus there is no sovereign immunity for U.S. Judges that exceed their jurisdictions. We the people are sovereign, and not those agencies and agents that we created to serve us.

17. The damages claimed are all a result of the injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION NEGLIGENCE

(Common Law Tort)

18. Paragraphs 1 through 17 are included by reference as though fully stated herein.

19. In the Law of the Case Exhibit 1 and in tort law, negligence is a distinct cause of action.

20. The Restatement (Second) of Torts defines negligence as "conduct that falls below the standard established by law for the protection of others against unreasonable risk of harm."

21. Negligence in this court of record consists of five elements, including the following: (1) a duty of care owed by the Defendant to the Plaintiff; (2) a breach of that duty; (3) an actual causal connection between the Defendant's conduct and the resulting harm; (4) proximate cause, which relates to whether the harm was foreseeable; and (5) damages resulting from the Defendant's conduct.

22. Defendants Roberts and O'Connor are negligent in their duty and obligation to the Plaintiff and we the people under U.S. law in order to hide relevant facts.

23. Damages are five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00) against each Defendant.

24. The damages claimed are all a result of the injuries.

25. I, Edward Thomas Kennedy, declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing facts are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

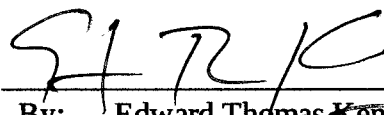

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests judgment against the Defendant as follows:

1. For the first cause of action, an Order for the Defendants to compensate Kennedy for damages in a sum in excess of the sum of One hundred million and xx/100 Dollars ($7,650,000.00), equally and pursuant to Executive Order 11110 and 12 U.S. Code § 411, without delay;
2. For the second cause of action, an Order to Defendants to compensate Kennedy for Damages of five hundred thousand dollars each;
3. That the court enter a declaratory judgment that defendants have acted contrary to constitutional right, power or privilege;

4. That the court enter a declaratory judgment that defendants have acted arbitrarily and capriciously, have abused their discretion and have acted not in accordance with the law, but under color of law;
5. Interest as allowed by law;
6. Costs of the suit including Attorney's fees;
7. Upon proper motion, Order the Defendants to pay punitive damages to Kennedy, pursuant to the Second Cause of Action: Negligence.
8. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.
